President Finity, of the Southern Railway Company today made the following statement: "In view of the demonstrated greater efficiency of la-bor and its resulting benefits to the company and in the hope, and with some exceptions, that present business conditions may show an improve-ment an understanding has been reached through Martin A. Knapp, and Charles H. Neill, the meditators under the Erdman act, with all classes of Phone orders will receive immediate the Erdman act, with all classes of employes that were parties to the settlement of April 1, 1908, shall be further postponed until October 1, at which time such negotiations may be resumed at the option of the companies through the meditators under the Erdman act.

First Gun in Queh Campaign.

The article in a popular magazine describing William J. Bryan as "the squarest Christian I ever knew," who sings a gospel hyma "with a ring to his ever," is his voice and a light in his eye." is of course only the first of the quad-rennial exhibitions of emotion regard-ing the personality of candidates. Ev-ery four years the American people instinctively crave a little gush. There is a thrill in thinking of the historic movement when the Hon. Thompkins hake made with the meloner or the is a thrill in thinking of the historic movement when the Hon. Thompkins shakes hands with the engineer or the Hon. Simpkins declares he owes everything to his sweetfaced mother. The only little pop of life the Parker candidacy ever displayed was when an elderly schoolma'am was discovered who remembered applying the shingle where it would do the most good to young Alton B. Less than a year ago there was a very fine woodcut printed of a log cabin, with a rather unsatisfactorily vague hin that the Vice-President was either torn there or within a few miles of there. As sure as fate, some man with ragged white whiskers is going to leap into fame about next August as the farmer who used to puddle young Brooklys Standard-Union.
